ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY KENTUCKY FRIDAY NOVEMBER 18 1904

VOLUME XXV, NO. 6

EACH PRECINCT

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEEMAN TO BE ELECTED

Meetings Will Be Held For That Purpose Next Monday.

Under rules 37, 38 and 39, adopted by the Democratic state convention held in the city of Louisville on June 1, 1904, it is made the duty of all Democrats in Christian, as well as all the counties of the commonwealth, to assemble at the respective precincts, except in cities of the first and second classes, on the third Monday in November, 1904, at the hour of 1 o'clock (standard time) and proceed then and there to the election of a precinct committeeman.

On the fourth Monday in November, the precinct committeemen thus elected are required to meet at the county seats in counties having only one legislative district, and organize by electing a chairman and secretary, who may or may not be members of the committee.

It is necessary to the party's success and harmony that the Democrats in each precinct should select their own committeemen, and that they should see to it that an earnest and zealous Democrat, who will give his time and attention to the work, is named in each instance. Let every Democrat in the county attend his precinct meeting and take part in the election of a committeeman.

JOHN C. DUFFY

Forms Partnership to Practice Law in Madisonville.

Mr. John C. Duffy has formed a law partnership with Mr. Edward C. Morrow, former county attorney of Hopkins county, and will locate in Madisonville. He will enter upon the practice of his profession there December 1, but will retain his office in Hopkinsville until the first of next year in order to transact the local business in his hands. His family will remain here until January. Mr. Duffy's friends will learn of his decision to leave Hopkinsville with regret, and their good wishes will accompany him to his new home. He is a lawyer of fine attainments, an orator of ability and a staunch and influential Democrat.

SOYARS-GARNETT.

Popular Young Couple Are Joined in Matrimony.

Beautiful and impressive was the ceremony which Wednesday night, linked in holy wedlock the lives of Miss Lene Soyars and Mr. Holland Garnett. The scene of the nuptial barytes was the home of the bride on South Main street and the witnesses were limited to the relatives and close friends of the contracting parties. The parlor and reception room were tastefully adorned with palms and white chrysanthemums, and the dining hall was elaborately decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and red ribbons, the colors of the Oumswue club, of which the bride is a favorite member.

The officiating minister was the Rev. Dr. E. L. Southgate, pastor of the Methodist church, and the service of the ring, typifying endless love and devotion, was used. The marriage took place in the parlor, and six members of the Oumswue club, Misses Jean McKee, Mary and Jean Goldthwaite, Mildred Hubbard, Joy Herndon and Bettie Lee Smith, preceded the couple into the room. The attendants were lovely evening dresses. The bride, who looked radiantly beautiful, was attired in a handsome gown of white satin, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridegroom wore the conventional evening suit.

Following the service and congratulations, the guests repaired to the dining hall where a delicious salad course was served. In the hallway, the punch bowl was presided over by Misses Bettie Lee Smith and Jean Goldthwaite.

An attractive feature was delightful music rendered by Miss Annie McPherson, on the piano, and Mr.

Fritz Fallenstein, violinist. Lohengrin's Wedding March was played, and during the ceremony "Hearts and Flowers" was a lovely accompaniment to the words of the service.

The bride and groom, and other handsome presents attested the popularity of the happy couple.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. M. O. Soyars and is one of the handsomest and most attractive girls in Hopkinsville society. The fortunate groom is a son of Mr. J. F. Garnett, president of the Planters Bank and Trust Co., and is a young gentleman of sterling worth. Mr. and Mrs. Garnett left at 10:20 for Washington, D. C., and eastern points of interest. They will be at home after Oct. 28 at Woodlawn.

IS ELECTED BISHOP OF KENTUCKY.

Chosen Wednesday Night To Succeed the Late Mr. Rev. T. U. Dudley.

The Diocesan council of the Episcopal Church in Kentucky went into executive session Wednesday in Louisville to elect a bishop to succeed the late Thomas Underwood Dudley. Nearly all the clergy in the diocese were present at the meeting. Grace church of this city was represented by the Rev. George C. Abbott and Mr. Hunter Wood.

After a session lasting ten hours, during the course of which twelve ballots were taken, the council elected Dr. Charles Edward Woodcock, of Detroit, Mich., Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Kentucky. The election of Dr. Woodcock came in the nature of a surprise, as his name was only proposed in the night meeting after the day had been spent in fruitless balloting with Dr. Frank Du Moulin, of Chicago, and Dr. W. T. Manning, of New York, as the leading candidates. As one time Dr. Du Moulin lacked only one vote of securing the necessary majority of both laymen and clergy.

Dr. Woodcock is at present rector of St. John's Church, Detroit. He is a New Yorker by birth and before assuming the rectory of St. John's was successively assistant rector of Grace church, New York; rector of the Church of Ascension, New Haven, Conn., and rector of Christ Church, Ansonia, Conn.

FROM PHILIPPINES

Maj. Gen. Wade, Former Commander, Reaches U. S.

(Special to New Era.) SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—The army transport Thomas, just arrived from Manila, had on board Maj. Jas. F. Wade, the former military commander of the Philippines, who lately exchanged commands with Gen. Corbin. Gen. Wade will leave in a few days to take command of the Department of the East, over which Gen. Corbin presided.

Gen. Wade says that the troops now in the Philippines are merely on garrison duty and that the military government has been abolished, except in the Moro district, where there is a combination of military and civil government.

DENIES STATEMENT

THAT TRUSTS WILL FAVOR
GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Reports Published in Various Papers Are Without Foundation.

Referring to certain publications in several daily papers concerning the attitude of what is termed the Regie contractors towards the Farmers' Tobacco organization, E. R. Tandy, representing W. G. Dunington & Co., makes the following statement:

"The published statements in the daily papers of last Tuesday to the effect that we had decided to buy tobacco only from the organized body of farmers is without foundation in fact.

"We have taken no part, either for or against the farmers' movement, and are now free from prejudice or bias relative to its purposes, but, in justice to ourselves, we want it distinctly understood that those farmers who have seen fit to remain outside of the organization need have no fear of being discriminated against when we enter the market to buy tobacco. Any statement to the contrary is positively untrue, and, no doubt, was inspired for the single purpose of driving unwilling planters to join the movement by representing our position to mean that we are threatening boycotts against this class, and we are unwilling that the charge shall stand unheeded.

"We require our supplies of tobacco not on the breaks, but in the country direct from the producers, and to this end we have made our arrangements, at our twenty different factory points, in the dark tobacco district, and expect this year as in the past to buy independent of any other buying interest at fair, legitimate market prices, such crops of tobacco as suit our purposes.

"Whatever our buying demand is worth to the producers of the tobacco district, each and every individual farmer who has tobacco suitable for our wants can expect to share it, with favoritism to none and square, honest dealings to all, by our agents in their respective districts."

Mothers Praise It.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the suffering it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. A. L. Spafford, postmaster, of Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved and cured her and I cannot praise it too highly." One Minute Cough Cure relieves coughs, makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, draws out inflammation, and removes every cause of a cough and strain on lungs. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

THE WESTERN KENTUCKY ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE.

Brief History of the Institution.—Strange Manias of Some of the Inmates.

The Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, near this city, was the second institution of the kind built in the state.

The movement, having for its object the erection of a second home for the feeble minded, was started February 28th, 1848, when the legislature provided for such a building. A tract of land containing three hundred and eighty-three acres was purchased at $5.14 per acre. This amount though was refunded by the citizens, and they also gave two thousand dollars additional. From 1848 to 1854 inclusive the legislature appropriated a total of $202,017 to cover the cost of the building and furnishing and supplying same.

The first patients were received September 18, 1854, and by December 1st, 1857, the number had reached two hundred and eight.

On the 30th day of November, 1861, the main building was destroyed by fire which caught from a spark falling on the single roof. Luckily, the disaster occurred just at midday, and of the two hundred and ten patients in the institution at the time, only one lost his life, and he fastened himself in his room and could not be rescued. As soon as possible, twenty-three cabins of hewed logs were erected at a cost of $60 each, the patients meanwhile being kept in the court house and other buildings in Hopkinsville. In February 1861 the legislature made an appropriation for the rebuilding of the institution, which was entirely completed by January 1st, 1867, the property at this time being valued at something over $500,000, and providing comfortably for three hundred and twenty-five patients. Since this time east and west wings have been added to the main building, two cottages have been built for the "trusty" class of white females, one cottage each for the "trusty" colored females and white males, three story brick building containing three wards for the colored males, and a two story brick building containing the offices of the steward and receiver, and storehouse on the ground floor and amusement hall on the second floor. Religious services are held in this hall two Sundays out of every month, the pastors of the various denominations represented in Hopkinsville taking regular turn preaching to the patients.

The addition of these buildings has increased the capacity to eight hundred, but every ward is overflowing, there being at this time eight hundred and twenty-four patients in the institution. This number, with the one hundred and six employees added, gives a total of nine hundred and thirty persons, enough to populate a good sized town.

To feed this number an amazing amount of food is required. On an average three barrels of flour, eight to nine hundred pounds of beef, fifty pounds of bacon, thirty five pounds of coffee, five pounds of tea, and 100 gallons of milk, besides vegetables and other products in proportion are consumed daily. A barrel of molasses lasts for a day and half, and a tierce of lard for five days. The patients will also consume, in chewing and smoking, a hoghead of tobacco weighing 1800 pounds in 80 days.

When an official gave this statement to the New Era representative, he was asked if tobacco was not considered a necessity, which immediately brought the answer from the official "You never saw a real crazy man until the tobacco gives out."

The management does not have to depend upon outsiders for supplies as the institution has its own system of waterworks, electric light plant, steam laundry, bakery, butcher shop, cold storage, drug store, store room and all improvements found in a city. A new and highly improved filter has recently been installed, giving the patients the purest of water for drinking purposes. The power for running all the machinery except the pumping station, is furnished by two engines, one of one hundred and the other of eighty horse-power. Four large boilers furnish the necessary steam. Each of thirty wards is furnished with a fire plug and hose for protection against fire. In case a fire should break out and it should be necessary to bring the patients out of the building this would be accomplished by means of a number of cylindrical fire escapes which are placed at the most appropriate points. These fire escapes which, from the outside, look like gigantic sheet iron tubes reaching to the top of the buildings, have a spiral slideway on the inside which is so smooth that once a person is started down it is beyond his power to stop until he is shot out onto the ground. The patients can be sent down these escapes as fast as they can step in, and if they want to peacefully they may be forced in in any position, always reaching the ground in the quickest possible time and without the least injury.

The beds are all made of iron, having ample bedclothing and always having a neat white counterpane on top. The majority of the bedrooms have only one bed in each, but there are several which have as many as a half dozen occupants.

The floors are kept in the highest state of cleanliness, and the walls are hung with pictures which to most of the patients are a source of never failing interest. In the female wards, however, the visitor can always tell that there is a change, for here the chairs all have tidies on the backs, the pictures are all either draped or hung at a more artistic angle and there is a general air of order which is not as noticeable in the male wards.

Almost every form of insanity is represented here, and possibly some of the cases never had a parallel. In the colored male building is a negro man seemingly about forty-five years of age who thinks he is a woman and that he is the mother of eight children, all of whom died except the seventh and that one was stolen from him.

In this building also is a man who almost bears out the theory that the human race is descended from the monkey. He does not walk upright, nor does he adopt the posture of the monkey, but glides about with great rapidity in an almost sitting posture with his hands on the floor behind him. He nearly always sits in a corner by himself and when sitting down his knees almost touch his chin. His teeth protrude like an animal and he does not show any signs of intelligence. The one link which binds him to the human race is his talent for using profane language, and in this respect he has no superior and very few equals in the world.

In the ward for the "trusty" white males is a man past middle age who may always be found seated at a table at work on a large account book. He does not seem to be insane but when questioned in regard to his work he will inform you that he is keeping the books of the universe, and that he does not use the ordinary methods of bookkeeping but has one of his own in which he employs the planets. He does not write words but uses letters and figures indiscriminately. This man has been in the asylum for a number of years and is considered a hopeless case. His only occupation is his bookkeeping, but this seems to be a source of never failing interest.

In the ward for colored females is a negro girl seemingly about twenty-two years of age, who was born without feet. She is physically sound and well formed otherwise to a point about the middle of the calf of the leg, where the bone abruptly ends in a ball slightly larger than the portion of the member above. She sits on the floor all day, crawling about from place to place, with a basket of pieces of cloth by her side which she says is her trunk and that she "is going home Christmas to get some feet put on her legs so she can marry." She is never out of humor nor gives attendants the least bit of trouble. She is also one of the healthiest patients in the institution.

UNDER A BIG TENT

TOBACCO IS GROWN IN WISCONSIN.

Experiment in Which Christian County Planters Will Be Interested.

Some of the farmers in Sauk county are adopting a new system of raising tobacco, which has proven a success, writes a Baraboo, Wisconsin, correspondent of the New York Commercial. It is cultivated under the cover of a tent, and one farmer near Sauk City has just harvested one of the finest crops of high grade tobacco ever raised in the state.

Two acres were devoted to the crop, which was entirely covered with a tent. Sumatra tobacco was grown exclusively, and the leaves produced are very thin. They are of lighter color than those in the open field, and as soon as they attain the proper size and texture are taken from the parent plant for curing.

The cost and net profit of raising tobacco in this way is an interesting feature. The total expenditure for raising tobacco under cover is about $800 an acre, of which $500 is necessary for the tent. The tent cloth is very thin, much like cheesecloth, and is made for this particular purpose. With good care it will last two seasons. About 2,000 pounds are produced on an acre, which sell for about $1.40, the grower realizing $600 net.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, M. Brunson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1903: "Having tried Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50c bottle at Ray & Fowler's.

Dewey Sold.

According to the Pembroke Journal, John H. Williams' sale of fine horses was a splendid success. Despite the very inclement weather, a good crowd was on hand and the bidding at times was spirited.

General regret is occasioned among the stockmen of this section by the fact that Dewey 1564, Mr. Williams' fine stallion, is to leave the state. Dewey was sold to Mr. Jordan, a west Tennessee breeder, his bid being $1,550. Though only six years old, Dewey had established a reputation as a sire which is equaled by few stallions known to southern Kentucky. He is a member of one of the most noted families of show horses in Kentucky.

A complete list of the horses sold and the prices paid follows:

Miss Ethel, yearling, $75.00; Dynx, yearling, $95.00; Archie D, yearling, $175.00; Libertine, Jr., 2-year-old, $70.00; Eastbrooke, 3-year-old, $150.00; Dewey 1564, $1,550.00; Lucella Copeland, $250.00; Lady Lynn 2425, $175.00; Miss Garrett 2427, $140.00; Beauty S 1491, $245.00; Miss Didlake, $95.00; Our Queen, yearling, $250.00; Mary Gill 2839, $75.00; Our Director 3174, $205.00; Wanda L 2838, $115.00; Lynneon 2178, $90.00; Nellie Garrett, weanling, $100.00.

You never heard of anyone using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied.

In reply to inquiries we have pleasure in announcing that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is like the solid preparation of that admirable remedy in that it cleanses and heals membranes affected by nasal catarrh. There is no drying or sneezing. The Liquid Cream Balm is adapted to use by patients who have trouble in inhaling through the nose and prefer spraying. The price including spraying tube, is 75 cents. Sold by drug stores or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

REPUBLICANS MEET AND REORGANIZE THE COUNTY COMMITTEE.

E. B. Long is Made Chair-elected Secretary.

The Republicans of Christian county held a meeting at the court house Saturday and reorganized the Republican county committee. Committeemen were elected Saturday at precinct meetings. A hot fight on organization was promised, one faction being determined to retain Judge A. H. Anderson and the other to supplant him with Judge James Breathitt. Matters were more or less harmonized by the election of Mr. E. B. Long, president of the City Bank. Mr. Long has not yet announced his acceptance of the position. Counsellman Edward Glass, colored, was re-elected secretary. Representative James F.
Rogers orated at length and placed
Dr. Andrew Sargent in nomination for chairman, but the physician had his name withdrawn. Hiram Smith, colored, replied to certain remarks of the Hon. Jim and censured him sharply for his position on the Berea College case. Other speakers kept things lively for a while.

PERILS OF LAND AND SEA

Captain Willmet's Remarkable Escape Shows What to do in Time of Trouble.

For many years, Captain Willmet, says the Times of Gloucester, Mass.,
was one of the best known seamen in the Gloucester fleet. Catarrhal troubles with which he suffered for fifteen years, made him dread the night at sea, being unable to lie down, and sleep on account of the constant catarrhal dropping.

Captain Willmet went to two different hospitals for treatment, but could get no lasting benefit. He constantly raised yellow and green phlegm and his trouble became so unbearable and nauseating that he was ashamed to go out in company.
When despairing of ever getting relief, his wife purchased a Hyomel cath for him, and trying it before going to bed, he enjoyed the first whole night's sleep for ten years.
Captain Willmet says: "I have used less than two bottles of Hyomel and have been cured by the remedy."

Hyomel kills the germs of catarrh and makes lasting and permanent cures. L. L. Elgin sells Hyomel under personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give quick relief. c55 n1 16

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and excruciating pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is a sure and safe remedy for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.
If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c and $1. sizes.
You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, without absolutely free by mail.

Ironquill Ware Resigns Office

Commissioner of Pensions Will Return To Kansas to Practice Law and Write Poetry.

(Special to New Era.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Commissioner of Pensions Ware has tendered his resignation to the president and it was accepted to take effect Jan. 1.

When seen Commissioner Ware refused to discuss his action in any way, except to say that the newspapers had been "resigning" him for the past two years. For at least one year, however, it has been definitely known that Mr. Ware would retire from his office soon after the election and return to his home in Kansas to resume his law practice.

It is believed that Commissioner Ware's action was not due to any suggestion that the severance of his relations with the pension office would be agreeable to the president.
On the contrary, it has been no secret that Commissioner Ware, soon after assuming his duties, found the duties of his office distasteful to him and that this distaste steadily increased. There is no intimation as to who his successor will be.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 15.—(Special)—A well-known Minneapolis editor and business man in the Minneapolis Tribune says he had an interview recently with Gen. Lew Wallace, the author of "Ben Hur," during which Gen. Wallace confessed that the doctors have given him only three weeks longer to live. He has stomach trouble and is slowly starving to death. He is writing his memoirs in a race against death.

BUSINESS COLLEGE

WILL PROBABLY BE ES-TABLISHED HERE.

Mr. M. H. Lockyear, of Evansville, in the City For That Purpose.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Mr. M. H. Lockyear, president of Lockyear's Business college of Evansville, Ind., is in the city with a view to establishing a similar institution here. He is one of the best known and most successful instructors in the line of commercial education in the country, and many prominent business men in this region, including a number of Hopkinsville citizens, are largely indebted to him for their present position.
It is hoped that he will decide to open a business college here, and there is every reason to believe that such an institution, perfectly equipped and conducted in the thorough manner proposed by Mr. Lockyear, will prove to be prosperous from the start. The course of study arranged by Mr. Lockyear will cover every phase of the business life. Departments of bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting will be conspicuous features of the institution, and the faculty will be composed of the most competent teachers.

Husking Bee.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Mr. and Mrs. Archie Higgins delightfully entertained a number of their friends at a possum supper and husking bee last night which took place at their hospitable country home. The young people greatly enjoyed the occasion. Miss Hattie Hale and Mr. Roger Harrison proved to be the most adept huskers, and were awarded attractive prizes.

FIRE AT MINES.

(Special to New Era.)
MADISONVILLE, Ky., Nov. 15 Fire destroyed the large machine and blacksmith shops at the Reinecke coal mines here last night. The damage amounted to six thousand dollars, only partially covered by insurance.
The shops were located near the mine shaft. In connection with the mines the company maintains the city electric light plant. When the blaze broke out in an unused part of the blacksmith shop, workmen quickly shut down the lighting plant, leaving the city in utter darkness. The blaze could easily be seen from the main street of the town, and the people were thrown into a wild state of excitement. The flames spread rapidly and the mine fire department was strained to keep the fire away from the buildings which covered the machinery used in operating the mines.
Twenty miners had gone into the mines early in the evening. They were quickly taken out, it being feared that the air pumps would be burned. The men were slow in coming to the top, and the members of their families stood at the entrance of the shaft weeping and praying for their safety. All the men were brought up without accident. The operation of the mines will not cease. The destroyed buildings will be rebuilt immediately.

Jack Chinn's Victory.

Col. Jack Chinn, one of the best known of Kentucky politicians, has been nominated for the upper house of the next general assembly by the largest majority ever given in a Democratic primary election in the county of Mercer. Col. Chinn received 1,357 votes, as against 447 for former Representative Sam Black, of Harrodsburg, his opponent. Col.
Chinn will be elected in November of next year to succeed Senator E.
H. Taylor. The district is composed of Franklin, Anderson and Mercer counties.

PUT AN END TO LIFE

(Special to New Era.)
LOUISVILLE, Nov. 14.—John T. Ruhl, a young brassworker, attempted to kill his wife today in his father-in-law's grocery on Spring and Hayne streets, and then committed suicide.

He had been married but a short time, and his wife had confessed to him that she was a mother and insisted on keeping her child, though he agreed to live with her if she gave the child up. A quarrel over the matter today ended in Ruhl firing a revolver at his wife. She dropped to the floor when he shot, and was unharmed. The young man, believing he had killed her, thrust the smoking muzzle of the pistol against his temple and sent a bullet through his brain, dying almost instantly.

QUICK WORK.

Tells of a Case.

Quick work counts.
Results tell the tale.
No delay about Doan's Kidney Pills.
They do their work quickly and well.
Here's local proof of it.

R. C. Moorefield, Sr., real estate dealer and associated with the Christian County Title Co., residing at 322 W. 17th street, says: "For several years the condition of my back and of the kidney secretions furnished ample evidence that I was suffering from kidney disorders. The aching in my back would come on by spells often so severe that it was painful for me to stoop, to straighten up or to attempt any sudden movement. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised locally and thinking that they might help me, got a box at Johnson's drug store. I had used them only a few days when I noticed a marked improvement in my condition and I continued the treatment. It did me more good than any medicine I had ever used, and that is putting it mildly. You may publish my statement any time and I will do all I can to let the value of Doan's Kidney Pills be known."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

TO IMPROVE PLANT

WATER COMPANY WILL ISSUE BONDS.

A Large Mortgage Filed For Record in the Office of the County Clerk.

(From Saturday's Daily)

A mortgage for a large amount was filed this morning in the office of the county clerk. The mortgage is given by the Hopkinsville Water company in favor of the Planters Bank & Trust company to secure a loan of $35,000 with which to float an issue of seventy thirty-year bonds of $500 each, bearing 5% interest payable semi-annually. The money thus raised will be used to pay off the floating debt of the company and to put in additional mains and to make additions to the plant, in order to give better service to the citizens of the town. The mortgage covers the entire plant, property of all kinds, franchises, etc., of the water company.

McKee's Investment.

The daily Oklahoman, published Oklahoma City, O. T., says: "Kee B. McKee, the wealthy lumberman who has made numerous heavy investments here during the last two years, yesterday manifested his faith in Oklahoma City's future by investing nearly ten thousand dollars in a manufacturing plant. To be more exact, Mr. McKee yesterday paid in spot cash to W. F. Young the sum of $9,200 for the latter's interest in the plant and business of the American Brick & Tile Company, a concern that has been doing a heavy business since its establishment three years ago."

A BAD DISORDER

In the fall of 1895 I contracted that fearful disease, Blood Poison. It gained such headway that I was forced to resign my position and seek relief at Hot Springs. After spending all the means I had I went to Memphis. In less than three weeks I was in a hospital, and after nine weeks of suffering I was discharged as cured. In less than a month every bone in my body seemed to be affected and felt as if they would break at the least exertion. Again I was compelled to resign, and I returned to the hospital for a seven weeks stay. When I came out I was advised to try farming. When I first went on the farm I prevailed on the only firm who handled S. S. S. for me and I began its use, and after taking the thirteenth bottle not a sore or boil was visible. R. B. FOWELL, East 9th St., Little Rock, Ark.

Of all human diseases, Contagious Blood Poison is the most hideous and hateful. The victim is tortured with eating ulcers, sores and abscesses, unsightly blotches, eruptions and other symptoms of the miserable disease. S. S. S. has been used successfully for nearly fifty years for Contagious Blood Poison. It contains no mercury, potash or other mineral. Our home treatment book gives all the symptoms of this disease. Medical advice free.

FORGER ARRESTED.

(Special to New Era.)

MADISONVILLE, Nov. 14.—V. B. Nuckels, of Guthrie, C. H. Adams, of Elkton, and C. M. Diekey, of Corydon, all livermen, appeared here today and identified H. B. Laws, confined in jail here as the man who fleeced each of them out of $50 by having them cash checks on a Cincinnati grocery house. Laws was arrested in Paducah on a charge of forging a check at Dawson. It is supposed that he had worked in many towns in this section. Letters are pouring into county judge Bradley concerning him. Since being locked up, Laws has sawed his mustache off with the blade of a knife, and all visitors he turns a blank face, and still denies his guilt. It is expected fully a dozen charges will be brought against him when he comes to trial here.

Tobacco Yield.

The United States department of agriculture has issued an estimate on various farm products.

The preliminary estimate of the average yield per acre of tobacco is 819 pounds, as compared with the final estimate of 696.3 pounds in 1908, 797.3 pounds in 1909 and a six year average of 780.7. The average as to quality is 80.5 per cent as compared with 85.6 per cent one year ago.

Boxes Stored Away.

Saturday, after the election commission finished the official count of the vote in the recent election, the ballot boxes were stored away in the office of the county clerk where they will remain six months, after which the ballots will be destroyed. The law provides that the ballots shall be looked up in the boxes at the clerk's office for this period, so they can be opened and examined in case a contest arises, or any question which cannot be settled otherwise.

Goes to Oklahoma.

The Rev. W. K. Piner, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here, has been transferred from the Tennessee conference to Oklahoma and placed in charge of the First Methodist church in Oklahoma City. Mr. Piner had been pastor of the Central Methodist church at Memphis for three years and the members deeply regret his departure.

Duke-Conner.

Miss Mary Duke and Mr. Vernon Conner were united in holy bonds of matrimony Saturday at Elkton. The bride, who has been teaching school near Alligree, is a lovely young lady of Kirkmansville, and Mr. Conner has a lucrative position with the Louisville Cooperative Co., and comes well recommended from his home, which is in Owensboro, Ky. The couple have been long acquainted, and Mr. Conner, who has been in Kirkmansville for quite a while, has made a host of friends.

BUT ONE NEW CASE

OF SMALL POX HAS BEEN REPORTED.

Other Victims Convalescent
---Everybody Should Be Vaccinated.

Through ignorance or malice the small pox situation in Hopkinsville has been grossly exaggerated by persons living outside of the city. All sorts of rumors have been spread abroad, most of which are utterly without foundation.

The New Era has kept the people posted from the time of the first case known, and shall continue to do so.

There is only one new case inside of the city, and the few others are reported by the physicians in charge to be convalescent. In the outskirts of town, two negroes have developed the disease. In each instance, the cases are of the mildest type and the houses are guaranteed. This statement is made on the authority of Dr. Woodward, the health officer of the city.

As a matter of precaution, every citizen should be vaccinated, and should see that his servants are vaccinated. Compulsory vaccination has been enforced whenever the health board has thought it to be necessary.

In the county, cases are being confined in the pest house, and every effort is being made by the authorities to stamp out the disease.

PUSHING ITS WORK

OWNERS TO PLEDGE ARE BEING SECURED

Articles Incorporating The Association Will Soon Be Filed.

The Dark Tobacco Growers' association is pushing its work, securing pledges of the growers, and every day adds to its ranks. Already the association has secured pledges from the tobacco counties, together with the tobacco growers of Kentucky, have completed their work in securing not less than 70 per cent, but more, and the tobacco counties of Christian and Trigg have secured progress and in a few days will be almost certain that 70 per cent, of the tobacco counties of the state are pledged in three counties.

The meeting of the executive committee at Guthrie last Thursday, when the articles of incorporation will be filed in the county, and a committee to draw up laws was appointed. Nine counties will be thus organized, embracing the heart of the tobacco section. It is calculated the others will follow. The committee is organized for a canvass of the tobacco counties in the purchase and the preliminary work there bids fair to succeed. In the meantime the association calls on every grower to hold his commodity.

CABBAGE SNAKES

ARE BUT HARMLESS LITTLE WORMS

"They May Be Eaten Raw or Cooked Without Any Danger."

The so-called "cabbage snake" which has lately made its appearance in some parts of Christian county is not a snake, but a worm, and as harmless as the apple worm and not nearly so numerous.

The following article by Gerald McCarthy, biologist, published in the bulletin of the North Carolina state board of agriculture, is conclusive:

"The sea serpent of mendacious renown seems to have been forced out of business this year by a land serpent which has located in the western part of North Carolina, where it has taken to frightening the owners of cabbage patches. Many stories have been published concerning the daily venom of this creature, usually referred to as the 'cabbage snake.' Several of these 'serpents' have been caught and sent to the North Carolina department of agriculture for identification. In every case they have proved to be the common and harmless water worm, or 'hair snake'—Gordius variabilis.

"Snakes and serpents belong to the back-boned series of animals. This creature is a nematode worm, belonging to the class of the round-bodied creatures. It has a soft boneless body, with only rudimentary organs. It does not bite, or chew, but absorbs its food in liquid form through every part of its body. It is normally an internal parasite of grasshopper and other insects. Its presence in cabbage heads is rare and accidental, due to the previous abundance of insects upon the plants. The Gordius worms are never found parasitic upon human or vertebrate animals. The stories concerning the deaths supposed to have been caused by these worms are untrue and ridiculous!

"There is no venom in them. They may be eaten raw or cooked without any danger to the eater.

"The serious part of these stories is that such publications may cause considerable loss by preventing people from eating the cabbage they have raised or purchased. Such fears are wholly groundless. These worms are not common, and when they do occur upon cabbage they will do no harm to anyone eating the vegetable. They are at worst no more hurtful than the worms so plentiful in apples and peaches some seasons.

"The so-called cabbage worm, or Gordius variabilis, is a slender, white bodied form from four to twelve inches long, and about as thick as an ordinary knitting needle.

"It is hoped that these newspapers which have published the misleading stories concerning this worm, will republish this refutation and thus help to prevent needless loss of good food."

LIFE PLANT

FLASH THE NEWS

across the world that it may be seen by suffering humanity everywhere.

Life Plant

the most marvelous medical discovery the world has ever known, will quickly and permanently cure

RHEUMATISM, CATARRH and all BLOOD DISEASES—It strikes at the very root of the disease—by driving the poison from the blood—and replacing it with pure rich blood. DISEASE CAN NOT EXIST when the BLOOD IS PURE. LIFE PLANT makes it so, then nature does her part and disease is soon forgotten in the enjoyment of perfect health. Our guarantee is—NO CURE NO PAY.

Mrs. Chas. Spach, of Fifth St., New Philadelphia, O., says—For three months I had rheumatism in a very severe form. My feet were so badly swollen that they could not walk only with great difficulty and severe pain. The pain was so severe as to give many sleepless hours at night. I was a great sufferer. Could find no relief until I took LIFE PLANT. Two bottles cured me. I cannot say too much for it.

PREPARED ONLY BY THE LIFE PLANT CO., CANTON, O.

JUDGE EMERY SUE

FOR WOODMEN MONEY BY SURETY CO.

Alleged He Withheld Funds And The Company Had To Pay.

Judge Charles W. Emery, formerly receiver at the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, and a well known Paducah politician, has been made defendant in a suit brought by the National Surety Co. The Paducah News-Democrat says: The petition alleges that Mr. Emery is due the local Olive Camp, No. 3, Woodmen of the World, $308.95 for funds placed in his hands while acting as secretary for the lodge during a portion of 1903 and 1904. The plaintiff was security on his bond and alleges that Mr. Emery failed to turn the money over to the lodge when demanded by his successor as secretary, and consequently said company is held responsible by the lodge. Eaton & Drake are attorneys for the company.

Thousands Cured.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles. "I bought a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on the recommendation of a druggist," so writes C. H. LaCroix, of Zavalla, Tex., "and used it for a stubborn case of piles. It cured me permanently." Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough caused by an attack of grip. It heals the lungs.

Have Smallpox.

(From Friday's Daily) Mrs. James Ferguson, who lives on South Virginia street, and Mrs. Guthrie, on Jesup avenue, have smallpox. Their homes have been quarantined. Tom Cason, whose case was reported several days ago, is doing well, and the disease has about run its course. There are no other cases in the city.

A Heavy Load.

To lift that load off of the stomach take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. Sour stomach, belching, gas on stomach and all disorders of the stomach that are curable, are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. S. P. Storrs, a druggist at 207 Main street, New Britain, Conn., says: Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and subsequent cure for this distressing ailment, I feel that I am always sure to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them. I write this to show how well the remedy is spoken of here. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was discovered after years of scientific experiments and will positively cure all stomach troubles. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

YOUNG COUPLE WED

MR. TORIAN AND MISS HESTER MITCHELL.

Charley Cooper, Formerly of This, City to Become a Benedict.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Mr. Frank L. Torian and Miss Florence Hester Mitchell were married last night at seven o'clock at the residence of the bride on West Nineteenth street. The ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. J. L. Wyatt in the presence of only the immediate families of the contracting parties and a few invited friends. Mr. and Mrs. Torian will board with the bride's parents.

The bride is a vivacious and attractive young lady of many accomplishments.

The groom is a popular and deserving young man who holds a responsible position with the Kentuckian with which office he has been connected for a number of years.

Handsome engraved invitations worded as follows were received here this morning:

Mrs. Laura Oxley requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Mary Hemphill

Mr. Charles Albert Cooper on Thursday afternoon, November 24 at half after three o'clock. At Home Cynthiana, Ky.

This announcement will be read with interest by the many friends of Mr. Cooper in this city. The prospective groom resided here for a number of years with his sister, Mrs. T. E. Barbour, and was prominent both in business and social circles.

Dr. Downer and Miss Annie Garrett of Pembroke, will wed in that little city on Nov. 22nd. The wedding will prove quite a function in that community as the contracting parties are both popular.—Elkton Progress.

Best Liniment on Earth.

Henry D. Baldwin, Supt. City Water Works, Shullsburg, Wis., writes: "I have tried many kinds of liniment, but I have never received much benefit until I used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism and pains. I think it the best liniment on earth." 25c, 50c, $1.00 at Ray & Fowler's.

Daughters of Confederacy.

Mrs. Edmunds, of Hopkinsville, will be in the city today for the purpose of organizing a local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The wives, daughters, granddaughters and nieces of Confederate soldiers are eligible for membership. Mrs. Edmunds will be pleased to see all ladies who are interested in the movement at the office of Jefferson & Triabue.—Elkton Times.

A Good Complexion.

"Sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks restored by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers," so writes S. P. Moore, of Nacogdoches, Tex. A certain cure for biliousness, constipation, etc. Small pill—easy to take—easy to act. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR CATARRH

Just Breathe Hyomei Four Times A Day and be Cured.

If a few years ago some one had said you can cure catarrh by breathing air charged with healing balsams, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for that eminent investigator, R. T. Booth to discover in Hyomei this method of cure.

Breathe Hyomei through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day and it will cure the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membrane of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects a complete and lasting cure.

In Hopkinsville there are scores of well known people who have been cured of catarrh by Hyomei. It does not help you L. L. Elgin will return the money you paid for Hyomei. Oct 27 Nov 17.

DR. THACHER'S Liver and Blood Syrup

CURES BY REMOVING THE CAUSE

Purifies the Blood

A THREE-FOLD REMEDY for all the diseases of the blood. Acts on the Liver and Kidneys.

Thousands have used this reliable remedy with perfect confidence and success for 52 years, because they know just what it contains. The formula consists of Buchu, Hydrangea, Mandrake, Yellow Dock, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, Gentian, Senna and Iodide of Potassium. Any doctor or druggist will tell you that this is a scientific and reliable combination of great merit for all diseases having their origin in the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. After years of experience and patient experiment, Dr. Thacher so perfected the process of manufacture, that it never fails to bring the expected relief when taken according to directions. Thousands of sick ones to whom life has been a burden have written grateful letters of thanks. SPEND, MISSISSIPPI, Oct. 17, 1902. "I have suffered greatly with indigestion, constipation, also a severe liver trouble, with loss of appetite. Could not rest well at night; in fact, had no energy to work or even walk around. I felt like I was packing a heavy load and was easily exhausted, until I took Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, which helped me almost from the first dose. When I had taken one and one-half bottles I felt like a different man, and I knew that it was due entirely to your medicine. I used in all three bottles, and consider myself perfectly cured. At this time my appetite is good, I sleep well, and feel strong and refreshed on arising in the morning." T. L. SWEET. "If you need a medicine write to-day for a Free sample bottle and 'Dr. Thacher's Health Book.' Give symptoms for advice. We simply ask you to try it at our expense. We know what it will do. DESTROYS HIS LIFE

BECAUSE HE SUFFERED FROM RHEUMATISM

Calvin, of Pon. Unwilling to Bear His Pain.

From Wednesday's Daily. News has been received in the city of the death of Mr. Job Calvin, a well-known citizen of the Pon. vicinity.

He had been a great sufferer from rheumatism for a long time, and a few days ago told his sister that he was unable to bear the pain and intended to seek relief in death.

His words were not taken seriously and no watch was kept on him. Monday, he took an overdose of morphine and died several hours later of the effects.

Mr. Calvin was sixty-five years of age and a highly respected man and his death has deeply shocked and grieved the community in which he resided.

He was the father of Prof. James M. Calvin, principal of the public schools at Grand Rivers, and former Democratic nominee for superintendent of Christian county schools.

When Mr. Calvin stated his purpose to end his life he asked his sister to see that when he died he should not be buried until forty-eight hours later. In accordance with his wishes, the body was kept until this afternoon when it was interred in the family burying grounds.

WANTS TO MAKE PEACE TERMS.

Stoessel's Despatch.—Russians Blow Up Vessel.

ONE FOX, Nov. 18.—A torpedo boat destroyer reached here today bearing a despatch from Gen. Stoessel to the czar asking if peace terms should be proposed with the Japanese besieging Port Arthur.

The Russians blew up the vessel, after the despatch was delivered, to prevent its being captured by the Japanese.

COL. BRECKINRIDGE

Suffers a Second Stroke Of Apoplexy.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 15.—Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, editor of the Morning Herald and a distinguished orator and lawyer, suffered a stroke of apoplexy today, and his condition is critical. He had a similar attack several weeks ago.

Warrants aggregating $296,890.10 due the teachers of the county schools of the state on November 13 last, will today be sent out from the department of the state treasurer at Frankfort to the several superintendents. This money represents the second payment on the per capita for the year, the first and second payments each being sixteen and two-thirds per cent of the whole amount of the per capita, which this year is $3.35. The delay in paying the teachers this installment of the per capita was caused by the failure of the several county sheriffs of the state to make payment on their taxes. By arranging with the First National Bank, Miss McDaniels has already paid the Christian county teachers.

IN SMOKE AND STORIES.

Elks Spend Happy Evening At Their Club Rooms.

HE Elks enjoyed a smoker in their handsome club rooms Tuesday night. They told jokes on one another, indulged in some high falutin' oratory, and wound up the evening by doing ample justice to the finest lunch that past master of the culinary art, Herr Henrik Blumenstall has ever been good enough to provide. Among the features of the occasion were Green Champlin's wild flight of frenzied eloquence, Judge Anderson's appeal for an Elk home, Col. Van Dulin's unuttered poem, Mayor Henry's pianola solo and Will Hancock's daring escape when called on for a speech.

Mr. Frank Dabney tested the credulity of the Elks with a tale about an imaginative mule he owned. He kept the animal in a wooden stable, he said, and fed it exclusively on popcorn. One day the stable caught fire and the popcorn in the mule's stall, shooting up into the air, descended all about the unfortunate animal in soft, white flakes. These flakes the mule mistook for snow, and, imagining it was in a snow storm, froze to death.

Councilman John Galbreath talked about "The Elk Away from Home." He had a mortifying experience at the St. Louis fair by not seeking information from some rother Elk. Losing his bearings, he accosted a little newsboy, and said: "Say, boy, I want to go to the Kentucky Building."

"The youth surveyed him critically, and remarked in a condescending tone: "Well, you can go this time, but don't stay but twenty minutes."

Most Elks also had an adventure at the fair. The sights and sounds of the Pike had so engrossed his attention that he was delayed in leaving the exposition grounds on the day he wanted to come home. He caught a street car and finally reached Union station. Pushing his way through the crowd he rushed up to the gate keeper and said: "Say, my friend, can I catch the train to Hopkinsville?"

The railroad official smiled pleasantly and remarked: "I don't know. It's been gone about five minutes, but I'll open the gate and let you try to catch it if you want to."

This story on one of the prominent physicians of the city who is an Elk was related: He had paid a professional call on an old negro woman. The next day a neighbor of the doctor dropped in and asked: "Did the doctor take your temperature?"

"I dunno," feebly replied the patient. "I've been too sick tonight to talk; but I ain't missed nothing valuable yet."

Jim Wootton was taken to task for remaining a bachelor even though it is leap year. It was told that he went out in the country to see a girl the other night and talked about nothing but the weather and crops, and the young lady saw it was up to her to make the first advance. She sidled up closer to him on the sofa and cooily said: "S' Leap Year." "Sleep here," echoed Jim, "Thank you kindly, but I've got to get back to town and open up the store in the morning."

In illustration of the courtesy that is characteristic of every true Elk, this tale was unfolded: One day at a baseball game, the grandstand was literally packed with people. Six ladies entered, and a gentleman in front of Col. Lem McKee arose from the bench and said: "One of you ladies take my seat." The portly Col. McKee immediately sprang to his feet and bowing gracefully said: "And the rest of you ladies take my seat."

S. J. Samuel talked on the subject, "Charity."

"Once I saw a poor, ragged tramp on the street, begging for alms. A number of richly dressed people passed by without even a kind word. When he saw my Elk button, his face brightened and he said: 'O, sir, surely you'll help a poor fellow.' I told him I would gladly give him a dollar, but I had only a ten dollar bill and had no change."

"Just give me the bill and I'll get the change," said the tramp. I trusted him, and he soon disappeared around the corner. Was my confidence misplaced? Not at all. He soon returned and handed me the change."

Upshaw Woodridge broke in at this juncture of the story with the exclamation: "Jake, that certainly was a noble deed."

"Yes," said Samuel, "and I got nine good dollars for a counterfeit bill."

Dade Green regretted that he was not a practiced speaker. "I am in the fix," he said, "of old Uncle Peter, who was a mighty good old darkey, and trusted implicitly in the efficacy of prayer. One night he got down on his knees and soulfully prayed, 'Deah Lawd, gimme a sweet night's rest and pleasant dreams, and let me arise in de mawning refreshing and strong.' Then a voice spoke from the unseen and said: 'Peter, what did you eat for supper?' Peter tremblingly replied: 'Nothin' but hash and onions, and a piece of juicy possum, some pickle and watermelon and pie.'"

"Well, Peter," came the voice, "I'll do the best I can for you under the circumstances." Dade said he would make the best speech he could under the circumstances, and glowingly described the kindness shown him by the Hoosier Elks at the time of the railroad accident, a few weeks ago, when he was injured.

At the beginning of the social, get-along, pipes, tied with purple ribbons, were passed among the Elks, and, after being used, were kept as souvenirs of the occasion. When the talks were finished, a curtained apartment, containing a table which was laden with delicious dishes, was visited. Turkey, ham, salads, tomatoes, pickles, celery and other good things were heartily enjoyed.

Governor's Proclamation.

Governor J. C. W. Beckham has issued the following Thanksgiving Day proclamation:

"Commonwealth of Kentucky, executive department.—Following the action of the President of the United States, I fix Thursday, November 24, as a day for Thanksgiving and prayer throughout the commonwealth of Kentucky. I request that upon that day all of our people shall refrain from their business and worldly cares and by charitable and religious deeds show their gratitude to Almighty God for his many blessings and bounties to us."

"In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the commonwealth to be hereunto affixed."

"Done at Frankfort, this 14th day of November, 1904, and in the 113th year of the commonwealth."

"By the governor, J. C. W. BECKHAM."

SALVATION ARMY

SENDS BAND OF WORKERS TO HOPKINSVILLE

Hold Services on the Streets—Eva Booth Succeeds Booth-Tucker.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

A band of Salvation Army regulars held a service in front of the courthouse this morning which attracted a large crowd. The band was composed of four men, three women, one boy and three girls. Nearly every one took part in the service and the singing was hearty. An interesting feature was the action of the little baby girl, apparently not more than three or four years of age, who would take her place in the line and join in the singing, clapping her hands together all the time. The boy also showed that he possessed a very good tenor voice.

A despatch to the New Era from New York says: Commander Booth-Tucker, who for eight and a half years has led the Salvation Army in the United States, bade farewell to New York at a big public meeting last night. Commander Tucker has Mary Brown has filed suit against the Louisville and Nashville railroad company for $400 damages. She alleges that the company forcibly and without her consent took possession of a strip of land adjoining their right of way near this city, valued at $400. She further charges that by so doing the company has greatly reduced the size of her property, and that the damage resulting in this way will amount to another $200.

Lusterine Mills.

The machinery for the Lusterine plant has arrived and will be installed at once in the three-story Tate building. Lusterine from the mines will from now on be shipped in by the car load and will be ground to a fine powder to be barreled and shipped out to fill orders now on file. President Frank Rives and Secretary L. Haydon are busy getting everything ready to place the machinery. The mill will start with a heavy business before it. Retail packing departments will be conducted in the upper stories as soon as they get the mill in operation.

Hon. Louis E. Johnson is the son of the late Reverdy Johnson who was United States Senator from Maryland, also Attorney General under President Johnson, and United States Minister to England, and who was regarded as the greatest constitutional lawyer that ever lived.

In a recent letter from 1006 F St., N. W., Washington, D. C., Mr. Johnson writes: "No one should longer suffer from catarrh when Peruna is accessible. To my knowledge it has caused relief to so many of my friends and acquaintances, that it is humanity to commend its use to all persons suffering with this distressing disorder of the human system."—Louis E. Catarrh Poisons. Catarrh is capable of changing all the life-giving secretions of the body into seething fluids, which destroy and inflame every part they come in contact with. Applications to the places affected by catarrh can do little good save to soothe or quiet disagreeable symptoms. Hence it is that gargarism, sprays, inhalers and inhalants only give

There is but one remedy that has the desired effect, and that remedy is Peruna. This remedy strikes at once to the roots of catarrh by restoring to the capillary vessels their healthy elasticity. Fields Around Hopkinsville

Full of Men Armed With Guns.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) Today every good sportsman who can get off from his business is out in the fields in the chase of Bob White, the king of game birds of this region. The weather conditions are admirable with the exception of the dry weather. On this account dogs are at a disadvantage in trailing the birds, but even this is overcome to a great extent by the heavy frost which fell during the night, and which, when melted, dampened the ground and weeds considerably.

For weeks past bird dogs have been at a premium and the stock was exhausted long before the demand was met. As a consequence a number of fine dogs have mysteriously disappeared and advertisements have been inserted in the papers by their frantic owners in the hope that by offering a reward the dogs might be reclaimed.

The crop of quail this year is reported as being unusually large. As the recent law prohibits the sale of partridges in any manner, even at restaurants, it is now up to the sportsman who delight in the toothsome quail to procure a gun, ammunition and dog and go out after them.

Another Promotion.

Mr. James Williamson, who was recently placed in charge of the Cumberland telephone exchange at Mayfield, has been transferred from that place to Indianola, Miss., and has already gone to that city to assume his duties. TWO DEATHS OCCUR OPENS LAW OFFICE

NEGROES ARE THE VICTIMS OF SMALLPOX.

One Here and One in County.—No New Cases Are Reported.

The health authorities state that the smallpox situation in Hopkinsville is improving steadily. There have been no new cases reported in the city since Saturday night. Last night there was one death of a negro on First street from smallpox and another in the southern portion of the county on the farm of Peter Barker. The other cases in town are of a mild type and the victims are convalescent. Two white families living northeast of the city on the Butler road were reported to have one case each and already the entire infected neighborhood has been vaccinated, and a strict quarantine established. The local board of health is keeping Dr. McCormack, of Bowling Green, thoroughly advised as to the situation.

The local board of health has been working hard in the attempt to have every person in the county vaccinated. Looking to this end a letter, signed by Dr. J. B. Jackson and County Judge W. T. Fowler, has been mailed in large numbers to nearly every farmer in the county. This was done to impress upon all the farmers the necessity of a thorough vaccination in order to stamp out the encroachments of the disease. The letter in part follows:

"If every citizen will co-operate with this board we can soon rid our county of smallpox. Now, therefore, by the authority vested in us by the statute laws of Kentucky, and in compliance with our duty, as said board, we hereby request you to require every person residing on your farm or any farm in your charge who has not had smallpox or been successfully vaccinated within the last five years, to be vaccinated at the earliest practical opportunity. Any one in your charge refusing or failing to obey the requirements set forth in this request subject themselves to the penalty prescribed in chapter 63, section 205, Kentucky statutes."

"Any house on your farm that has had a case of smallpox in it must be disinfected as follows: All washable goods must be boiled, the bedding, carpets, etc., should be spread out and all holes stopped, and the pounds of sulphur put in the house as per and burned in the house, and left for eight hours."

Cake For Pretty Girl.

Sinking Fork, Nov. 17.—The concert and pretty girl contest given at the Sinking Fork church by Miss Jessie Cullom, teacher at Pligah school, was a very pleasant event. A large crowd attended and after a most interesting program of recitations, dialogues and tableaux was enjoyed with the best of attention, a nice large cake was placed before the crowd for the prettiest girl present. This caused quite an excitement among the young men, everyone wanting his best girl to have the cake. Miss Fannie Hill received the cake by a large majority of votes.

Calmage Sermon

By Rev. Frank De Witt Calmage, D.D.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 13.—To that class of nominal Christians who are hearers, but not doers, and who pin their faith upon their religious ancestry or their favorable environment instead of "getting right with God" personally, this sermon will come as an accusing call. The text is Matthew xiv, 8. "Give us of your oil, for our lamps are gone out."

All men may be broadly divided into two classes. There are some on the border line, belonging not altogether to the one class or the other, having characteristics of each, but the great mass may be separated into two groups—the workers and the idlers. The one includes the toilers, the pullers, the diggers, the grinders, the climbers. They are striving to succeed in a noble, honest way. They do not mean to be social parasites. They want a share of the good things of life, but they do not expect to receive them as a gift, but to pay for them by honest work. They hope for promotion, and they strive to merit it by seeking to make themselves worthy of it. They study and toil to develop themselves, so that when the opportunity comes they will be ready to take advantage of it. Though they may be in obscure positions they do their work well, and when the call comes to go higher they are prepared by long years of hard work to perform the duties of the higher position.

"Why do you study so hard?" a Yale classmate asked one day of John C. Calhoun, the South Carolina student, who was his roommate. "You are now the leading student in the college. No man can successfully compete with you in any study." "Oh," answered the young man, "I am not working for leadership in a college town. I am working to be a leader in the nation." "What, Calhoun—do you expect to be a great statesman in Washington?" "I did not expect to go to Congress within six years," answered Calhoun. "I would pack up my books at once and leave Yale tomorrow. I feel so sure of going to Congress that I cannot waste any more time. I must secure myself by increasing labor to meet the nation's leaders in the arena of debate." John C. Calhoun wanted to win success. He did more than that. He expected to prepare himself by hard work for the time when that success should come, as come it did, and as it nearly always will come to those who are conscientious in preparatory work.

No Short Road to Success. The second class is comprised of men who want to win success by a minimum of labor. They hate drudgery; they hope to succeed by some lucky chance. These are the men who, going on a foreign tour, expect to learn French or German in five weeks; they hope to marry a rich wife and have an easy time living on the savings of their wife's father; they prepare to conduct the business of their fathers, not by beginning, as he did, at the lowest rung of the ladder, but by taking a six months' course in a business college or by becoming their fathers' nominal private secretaries. During their easy apprenticeship they would spend three days out of every week playing golf and at least five nights out of every week in ballroom, at theater party or in alcoholic dissipation. They hope, then, they play at business in which they are not working at play. These people represent failure. For as an old writer once said, "People who never do any more work than they are paid for, never get paid for any more than they do." These people always want to succeed with a minimum of work.

Yes, the two kinds of people on earth I mean. Are the people who lift and the people who lean. Wherever you go you will find the world's masses. Are always divided in just these two classes, and, sadly enough, you will find, too, I mean. There is only one lifter to twenty who lean.

Drones there are in the busy beehive of temporal life. Drones there are in the busy beehive of spiritual life. We know them well. They have been found in every age—men who hope to enter heaven, but are not willing to try themselves, nor to resist temptation, nor to strive to enter through the narrow gate. It was to warn people of the futility of such lives that Christ told the parable of the ten virgins. Five of them, he said, were foolish, and indulgent and heedless of the obligations of the spiritual life. He is reminding of Christians in name only, not having denouncing criminals or vicious people. These virgins were nominal Christians, not the murderers and robbers who infested the lonely roads of Palestine, ready to waylay the traveler; not the openly immoral, like the Magdalene or the woman of Samaria, but the people who, as an old commentator has said, make a "profession of the gospel and act in such a manner as to give real Christians a favorable impression of them and so only admittance into their midst." He is reminding of Christians in name only, not outwardly appearing all right and yet have not the true inward consecration of heart and who expect therefore to go to heaven upon borrowed spiritual capital.

The Spiritual Mendicants. These spiritual mendicants of my text are in the first place, the men and women who are indifferent to the command of Jesus Christ, who expect to reach heaven on account of the mere profession of a Christian name. They are not bad men. They have been reared in Christian nurseries and Christian Sunday schools. During their boyhood days they have knelt at Christian altars and sat in Christian pews. But as far as their own lives have been concerned they have no Christian experience and have never openly confessed Jesus Christ as their Saviour. They have never done anything to show their devotion to God as consecrated disciples of Christ. And yet if you should ask them some day if they expected to reach heaven they would instantly answer: "Of course, of course, of course! The home of my youth was a Christian home. I am a child of the covenant. My father was a good Christian man. My mother prayed over me from the time I was born until she died. Why should I not go where they are?"

Oh, yes, my friend, you would certainly go to heaven upon the borrowed capital of your father's and mother's lifelong consecration if they had any power to take you there. But heaven's duty is that your father's and mother's spiritual power is limited. From the time you were born your parents lived entirely for you and your brothers and sisters. Every pleasure and every indulgence they had they shared with you. But there is one blessing your mother and father have that they cannot divide with their children. They cannot divide with you their oil of spiritual life. They could lead you to the rock of Calvary, where, in the blood of Jesus, you might see how your sins might be cleansed, but you must yourself seek an interest in his atonement. They could tell you of the Holy Spirit, whose illumination could scatter your spiritual darkness, but the oil of his divine influence you must implore for yourself. They could compel you as a child to go and sit in the church pew, but they could not compel you to receive Christ as your Saviour. That is a matter simply between you and Jesus. They could introduce Christ to you as their very best friend, but they could not force you to make their friend Jesus your friend. He will never become a part of your life unless you yourself open to him the holy of holies of your heart to let him in. Neither will Christ receive you as one of his own unless you truly come to him with the counterfeits of the cross.

Borrowed Spiritual Oil. And yet many people expect ultimately to reach heaven on account of the borrowed spiritual oil of a consecrated Christian ancestry. "Oh," said a minister's daughter to me some time ago, "I know I am not living as I ought, but I am all right. I have no fear about the future. I have made my husband promise to bury me at the foot of my father's grave. When the archangel's trumpet sounds and we all come up I am going to cling to my father's hand." I know Christ will let me in if I am by his side. I know it, because my father was such a good man. I know Christ would not refuse my father anything." She said this in jest and half in earnest. Many of us have the same hope and say the same things, not half in jest, but in dead earnest. No, my friends, when the Bridegroom cometh on that great day of resurrection your father and mother will have no spiritual oil to spare. Then we cannot follow the Divine Bridegroom with our parents' spiritual light. We must have our own lighted oil to become part of the wedding procession of the redeemed or forever stay out of Christ's banquet hall enveloped by the impenetrable and crushing darkness of the eternal night.

These five foolish virgins represent another class. They represent the nominal church members. They represent the men and women who look upon church membership as a kind of fetish. We read that during the dark ages the Catholic devotees used to buy "pious indulgences," which would absolve them from their future sins, which they were about to commit intentionally. So some people who are nominal church members seem to think that they can lie and steal and cheat and commit all the forbidden sins of the Decalogue if they are only church members in good standing. They seem to think that the crucial essential of Christianity is a perfection of creed for the head and not absolute consecration for the heart. They seem to think that they can walk hand in hand with sin and continue to say walk if they can only repeat this sentence as they go: "I believe in Jesus. I believe in Jesus. Yes, I believe in Jesus." Now, Christ, by the parable of the five virgins, tells us that a mere mental faith in him, unaccompanied by a surrender of the heart, is not faith at all. The faith that saves is a faith that transforms the life, a faith that takes complete control of a man. The nominal church members must have consecration of heart and pure life as well as a perfect gospel creed. I believe that Christ's fuller teachings affirm that he is more willing to forgive the sins of an out and out enemy who once blasphemed him, but repents of his sin, than he is willing to forgive a Judas, who never denied him publicly, but who in private life betrays him with a kiss.

Christ's Forgiveness of Peter. How about Peter? Did not Christ gladly forgive him his three denials when Peter repented after the cock crowed? The most powerful pulp description of any Bible scene, I ever read or heard was that delivered by Joseph Parker of "Peter's Three Denials." In the first place, the great preacher described the scene of Judas, hypocritical Judas, stealthily approaching Christ and planting a betraying kiss upon the Saviour's cheek. Then came the tramp of the Roman soldiers. Then the Jews were formed as the prisoner was being marched back to the capital. In olden times, as now, when a man is arrested the crowds of curiosity seekers were augmented step by step. Peter, when he saw the multitude, became very much frightened. Instead of walking side by side with Christ, as he ought to have done, he followed after him. When they approached the home of Caiaphas, the high priest, Peter came into the house and sat down by a fire and began to warm himself as though he had never been with Christ or seen Christ in his life. While he sat there by the fire a young Jewish maiden came up and eyed him sharply. Then she tapped him upon the shoulder and said: "Are you not a friend of Jesus?" Then also went with him to the high priest's house. Peter merely shrugged his shoulders as he answered, "I know not what thou sayest." Peter then gets up and leaves the room and goes out upon the porch. When he has gone out another Jewish maiden touches him upon the shoulder and says, "This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth." Then old Joseph Parker shook his lionine head and let out a growl as he said, "I do not know the man." For the Bible says, "He denied him with an oath." When the people began to crowd about him Peter still more vehemently began to protest his ignorance with oaths and curses. He denied Christ. He denied him once, twice, thrice. He denied him in the meanest, the most contemptible and cowardly way. Yet when Peter repented of his sin Christ forgave him and restored him to his apostleship. Christ is magnanimous. He will save the worst sinner if he comes to him in sincere penitence, grieving for his sins and entreating pardon. But for the man who confesses him with his lips, but denies him by his life, he has no word but "woe, woe unto you hypocrites!"

Not unto every one that calleth, "Lord, Lord, open unto us," shall the banquet hall of Christ be opened. Not unto the nominal church members shall the invitation be given to come and sup with the Divine Bridegroom. What became of the five foolish virgins who had no oil in their lamps? All the ten virgins had the same kind of lamps. The creed of man can aptly be symbolized in the lamp which holds the oil. They all believed in the coming of the Bridegroom. They all believed in Jesus Christ. But the oil of consecration, the purity and devotion of life were lacking. If belief in Christ would suffice, Judas himself might have been saved. The belief that has no effect on the life is not faith at all and can never bring man into spiritual relation with Christ. Oh, nominal church members, you must have consecration of heart as well as perfection of creed. You must have spiritual oil for your "lamps of faith," else you can never follow the Divine Bridegroom into the banquet hall of the marriage of the Lamb.

These spiritual mendicants of my text represent another class of spiritual beggars. They are the type of men and women who are not believers, as we call loafers, or mere hangers on. They represent the so-called moral and upright people who expect to go to heaven on account of the mere temporal good which they have been able to do some of their fellow men. They represent the large class of people who expect to bribe their way into the wedding banquet because they have given to some town a library or endowed some college or profession or helped some hospital or financially helped to support some church or foreign missionary. They do not claim that they have lived for the purpose of honoring Christ and consecrating their lives to his service, but they do say that on account of the good they have been able to do Christ will invite them to join the wedding procession on the night that the Bridegroom cometh.

"None That Doeth Good." Is this true? Will Christ allow any one to join the wedding procession who comes to him merely with the "lamp of good works" in his hand? "No," For if we are honest with ourselves we know "there is none that doeth good—no, not one." We know that many of the acts for which the world praises us we have done with the most selfish desires and the most corrupt motives. Some of them have been done to win popular applause, some to secure the good opinion of the church and the world. For these we have received our reward, but Christ does not reward them. We know that there is not one of us who would like the thoughts of our brain and the desires of our heart to be read by the most intimate of our friends as an open book. I know some people say they are proud of their past and of what they have done. John Churchill, the first Duke of Marlborough, when a very old man exultantly lived over the scenes of his sturdy manhood. Day by day his secretary used to read to him the histories of the military campaigns of which Blenheim and Ramillies and Oudenarde and Malplaquet battlefields were the successful climaxes. When a particularly brilliant move was described, on which the success of the English armies turned as upon a pivot, the old duke's eyes would flash as he raised himself and said: "Wonderful! Wonderful! How did I ever execute it?" He would glory in and praise his own deeds, even as aged Dean Swift would glory in the works of his youth when he said, "What genius I must have had when I wrote that!"

As Sands of the Sea. But, though the Duke of Marlborough gloried in the military strategy of his past life, there is not one of us, from a gospel standpoint, who can truly glory in the "good works" we have done. Our wasted opportunities would flash as he raised himself and said: "Wonderful! Wonderful! How did I ever execute it?" He would glory in and praise his own deeds, even as aged Dean Swift would glory in the works of his youth when he said, "What genius I must have had when I wrote that!"

his way to the wedding banquet hall with the empty lamp of "good works." When the Bridegroom cometh it will then be for us as dark as midnight unless we prepare our spiritual oil in Christ's own way. "Faith without works is dead." "Work without faith," in the sight of the Divine Bridegroom, is also as black as the tomb. If we find our gospel mendicants among those who are depending upon their mothers' and fathers' consecration we also find them among those who would call upon the name of Jesus Christ as a fetish and those who are depending entirely upon their "good works."

I think, however, that the majority of spiritual beggars can be found and always will be found among those who expect some day to consecrate their lives to Jesus Christ, but keep putting off the acceptance week by week and day by day and hour by hour until suddenly the cry is taken up, "Behold the Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him," and they will be called unprepared. I do not believe that all of these foolish virgins deliberately intended to go and get the oil which is the symbol of the spiritual life. Gentlemen:—FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR cured me of consumption after I had suffered two years and was almost desperate. Three physicians failed to give me any relief and the last one said he could do me no good. I tried almost every medicine I heard tell of without benefit until FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR was recommended to me. Its effect right from the start was magical.
I improved steadily from the first dose and am now sound and well, and think FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is a God-send to people with Throat and Lung Trouble.
Yours very truly, Mrs. Mary Ambrose.

LESSON VIII, FOURTH QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, NOV. 20.

Text of the Lesson, Isa. 1, 1-9, 10-20.
Memory Verses, 18-20—Golden Text.
Isa. 1, 16, 17—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]

Our lesson is called "Isaiah's Message to Judah," which is all right as to the last two words, for it is indeed a message to Judah and not to all Israel, and it is a message to Judah and not to the church. This is the primary truth, but we must not forget that there are lessons here for all believers at all times. But, then, we must notice that it is not Isaiah's message, but the message of the Lord through His servant Isaiah. "Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for the Lord hath spoken!" (Verse 2). This is the truth to be emphasized. "The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken!" (Ps. 1, 1). God hath spoken unto us by His Son (Heb. 1, 1, 2). This is the great fact of the Bible, and surely it becomes His creatures to hear, but that is the very thing they refuse to do, as He says, "I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me" (verse 2).

He says that the dumb brutes such as the ox and the ass have more regard for their owners than His people have for Him. In Jer. viii, 7, He says that the birds seem to have more intelligence than His people. When on earth in the days of His humiliation, as He wept over Jerusalem He said, "If thou hadst known the things which belong to thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes" (Luke xix, 41, 42). "They have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward" (verse 4), was true of them in the days of Isaiah and Jeremiah and also when our Lord was on earth, for He had to call them hypocrites and a generation of vipers, and finally to tell them that their house would be desolate till His return (Matt. xxiii).

Our lesson says that individually and nationally they were sick and unsound from head to foot, their country desolate and overthrown by strangers, and that but for a very small remnant of godly ones in their midst they would be like Sodom and Gomorrah. Then He calls them Sodom and Gomorrah and says that He cannot tolerate their sacrifices and their feasts; that they weary Him with them (verses 11-15). From this and similar language elsewhere in the prophets some have boldly affirmed that the Lord never instituted sacrifice, but such do not know what they say, nor do they understand Gen. iii, 21, the first of all sacrifices and by the hands of the Lord Himself.

When He was on earth in human form the feasts of the Lord which He had ordained had become mere feasts of the Jews, all form and ceremony to be seen of men (Matt. vi, 1-18; xxiii, 1-8). This sort of thing He hates today as much as He did then, for He desires worship only from such as worship Him in spirit and in truth. See John iv, 23, 24. It may not be for us to judge, but a very little consideration will lead one to think it possible that there may be in the church today a very similar state of affairs to that described by the Spirit through Isaiah. All we need say is that whatever in the form of worship is not from a redeemed soul in the power of the Spirit and in the name of the Lord Jesus cannot be worship at all. The precious blood of Christ, the great sacrifice, is the only foundation, the Holy Spirit the only power and the word of God the only revelation by which we can know God and worship Him.

He who would worship God must first be clean; hence "Wash you; make you clean" (verse 16), and how this is to be done is plainly set forth both in Genesis and Revelation and all the way through. Nothing can cleanse from sin but the blood. "The life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls, for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul" (Lev. xvii, 11). The doings of verses 16 and 17 follow the cleansing. There can be no acceptable doing till we are cleansed, for "they that are in the flesh cannot please God" (Rom. viii, 5).

How, then, is the cleansing accomplished? God must do it. When will He do it? Come, now; how thoroughly will He do it? The sins as scarlet shall be white as snow and the crimson like wool, for the blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin, so that it is remembered no more. "I, even I, am He that blot out thy transgressions for My own sake and will not remember thy sins" (Isa. xliii, 25). The vanity of all our efforts to cleanse ourselves is set forth in Jer. ii, 22, but God does it instantly and thoroughly. Then follows the secret of all acceptable service, for where there is a redeemed soul who is willing and obedient God will work in that one both to will and to do of His good pleasure (Phil. ii, 13), and such an one can know the power and comfort of these words, "Lord, Thou wilt ordain peace for us, for Thou also hast wrought all our works in us." "Striving according to His working, which worketh in me mightily." "Working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight" (Isa. xxvi, 12; Col. i, 20; Heb. xiii, 20, 21).

All rebelling against God's will and God's way (and there is a lot of it on the part of His people) only causes sorrow to themselves and brings no glory to God, but compels Him to chasten them for their good. It is the privilege of every child of God to enjoy perfect peace and to bear much fruit to the glory of God, but it can only be in and by a willing and obedient people, for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it, and His word is forever settled in heaven (verse 20; Ps. cxix, 89).

OPEN A NEW MINE

TERRY COAL AND COKE COMPANY ORGANIZED.

Meeting Of Stockholders And Election of Directors And Officers.

(From Thursday's Daily.)
The stockholders of the Terry Coal and Coke Company, of Hopkinsville, held a meeting at 9 o'clock this morning in the office of the company in the Odd Fellows' building, and elected the following board of directors: R. E. Cooper, president; Home Telephone Co.; Joe F. Garnett, president Planters Bank & Trust Co.; L. G. Williams, general coal and real estate broker; L. Hayden, secretary Hustler Mining & Polish Co., and Brack Owen, president Carbondale Coal & Coke Co., of Paducah, Ky.

After adjournment of the stockholders meeting, the following officers were elected by the directors: R. E. Cooper, president; L. G. Williams, vice president and business manager; Brack Owen, second vice president; Joe F. Garnett, treasurer; L. Hayden, secretary and general manager mines. Judge Joe McCarroll was elected as attorney and general counsel.

The company owns and controls over one thousand acres of fine coal and timber land, adjoining the Empire Coal Co. lands on the north and west, at Empire, Ky., 15 miles north of Hopkinsville, on the L. & N. railroad, upon which is located the "Terry," "Woodridge" and "Empire" veins of coal. A new mine has been opened on this property into a four foot vein of Peacock coal, which is being equipped with steam pumps and haulage, and the main entry being driven as fast as possible. A spur track is being constructed for from the railroad to the mines, and shipment of coal to the markets along the line will begin soon as possible.

The offices of the company is located in room 7, Odd Fellows' building, and is in charge of L. G. Williams, vice president of the company. The mines and operations are under the general management of L. Hayden, secretary of the company.

The President will shortly begin an order extending the civil service regulations to the employees of the Isthmian Canal Commission.

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties, and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.

As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

WHAT THEY WANT

THE SUBSCRIBERS EXPRESS MANY WISHES.

Every Premium in the Entire List Particularly Sought By Somebody.

Have you selected the premium you wish to draw in the New Era's Gift Distribution on December 28th? If you have not you are one of the very few persons in Hopkinsville and the surrounding country who have not. It is quite interesting to hear the remarks made by the persons entitled to tickets when the little slips of paste board are dropped into the wheel. Some of them seem to be somewhat diffident in the matter and do not want to convey the impression that they are anxious for the chances but remark that as they cost nothing it would be best to take them.

Of course, the most popular premium is the Mogul farm wagon. It is surprising how many persons living in town and who would seemingly have no earthly use for a farm wagon, express the hope that they will draw this premium. The others, however, are not alighted and there is not a single one in the entire list of thirty which has not been selected as the one desired.

If you have not already gotten your tickets do so at once and be sure that you have a chance in the drawing.

MR. JARRETT'S SALE

Will Be Held at 10 O'clock This Morning.

Today at 10 o'clock a. m., Mr. Charles F. Jarrett's big public sale of live stock, farming implements, household goods, crops, etc., will take place on his farm, six miles west of the city on the Canton pike. A dinner will be served on the grounds, and Dr. John S. Gray, of Bowling Green, will be the auctioneer. This will be one of the largest sales held for years in the county and will attract a big crowd of bidders. Further particulars of the sale may be found in this impression of the New Era.

Sam Jones' Remarks.

In the Atlanta Journal, Rev. Sam Jones discusses the election. In part he says: "Last Tuesday was a landslide, an avalanche, a Bull Run and a Waterloo combined. Teddy is in the saddle for four years more (D. V.) and the Democrats are afoot, so to speak, but walking is good and much cheaper than riding, though it is not so expeditious.

"After all, an election is but an expression of the choice of the people and the majority in this country rules, although Teddy got about a two-thirds majority. I have met no one who had on mourning or seemed to be in sackcloth and ashes. Ten-cent cotton 'soothes our sorrows,' heals our wounds and drives away our cares. The South is financially and commercially 'in the saddle,' and although we lost politically, we are ahead in a thousand ways. Cotton to burn, corn to sell, sorghum and hay to let, debts paid, and money in bank. We have got a heap to shout over. We can thank Gok and take courage. Georgia and every southern state has as good a president as Pennsylvania, or New York, or Michigan.

Mr. Jones pays a glowing tribute to William Jennings Bryan, saying: "If he is wise and judicious, he can, and I believe, he will, lead a victorious party four years hence. After such a victory as the Republicans have had they are going to wind up in four years with a Belshazzar's feast, and Bryan will be the Daniel who will read the handwriting upon the wall, 'Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting.' When the Democrats claimed to come back to safety and sanity, and adopted pretty much all the principles of the Republican party platform they pulled off from Bryan and Bryanism, yet Bryan threw himself into the breach and not only spoke with sincerity and honesty, but he spoke to more people everywhere than when he was running for the presidency himself. There is magic in his name. He has something to say to the common people, and the common people hear him, not only gladly, but by the millions. I am not a free silver man, but I am a Bryan man from this time."

CAN NOT SPEAK

(Special to New Era)
LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 17.—No change is reported in Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge's condition. He can not speak, and his entire left side is paralyzed. He is conscious.

WATCH ON FOWLER

IS PLACED BY THE ODD FELLOWS.

Handsome Present For Efficient Chairman Of Carnival Committee.

Last night at the regular meeting of Green River Lodge No. 54, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Mr. L. E. Fowler was presented by the members with a handsome gold watch in testimony of their appreciation of his excellent services in the Interest of the lodge during the fall festival recently held here under Odd Fellow auspices. Mr. Fowler was chairman of the executive committee. He had general supervision of the big enterprise, and his faithful and intelligent efforts had much to do in bringing about the splendid success of the carnival.

Decision Reversed.

In the circuit judgeship contest in the Bowling Green district the court of appeals reversed the decision of Special Judge Osborne, and ordered the petition of B. W. Bradburn to be dismissed. The contest was filed by Bradburn on the grounds of fraud. The court of appeals holds that certain ballots had been tampered with after the election officers had certified to the returns which gave a majority for Galloway, and should have been admitted as evidence by the lower court. Bradburn was the Democratic nominee.

Frank S. Israel, commander of the ship Admiral Dewey, committed suicide on his vessel when in the vicinity of the Bahamas.
